REGISTRATION DEPARTMENT

NOTIFICATION

No. E1-21568|77. 25th February 1981.

In supersession of the Select list of Officers for appointment as Sub-Registrars II Grade in the Malabar area published as per notification No. E1-32627|73 dated 1-2-1974 in the Kerala Gazette No. 6 dated 5-2-1974, the Departmental Promotion Committee at its meeting held on the 12th and 13th October, 1976 prepared a revised select list of officers for appointment as Sub-Registrars II Grade in the Malabar area for the period from 1-6-1968 to 31-3-1976 based on the principles of reservation contained in the Kerala State and Subordinate Service Rules, which was introduced as per G. O. (P) 160|75|PD dated 24-11-1975 with retrospective effect from 1-6-1968. The revised select list thus drawn up was published as per notification No. E1-46607|75 dated 18-1-1977 in the Kerala Gazette No. 4 dated 25-1-1977 after approval by the Government. This list was drawn up from the field of choice of three times of the number of anticipated vacancies. Smt. C. Kamalakshi, a Scheduled Caste member, rank No. 78 in the list and selected for the year 1-4-1975 to 31-3-1976 filed O. P. No. 1677|77 in High Court stating that the 12th turn of the first rotation allotted to SC|ST should have been assigned to her but for the restriction in the number of persons to be included in the field of choice. The High Court in its judgement in the O. P. has observed that the field of choice should not be restricted as to deny the benefit of reservation of appointment to the eligible communities. It has also been ordered that Smt. Kamalakshi should be reassigned a rank in the select list with regard to Rules 14 to 17 of the Kerala State Subordinate Service Rules, irrespective of her rank in the lower grade.

2. Accordingly the Departmental Promotion Committee which met on 12-2-1981 drew up a revised part list for the period from 1-6-1968 to 31-3-1969 and 1-4-1969 to 31-3-1970 in the light of the judgement. The revised lists thus drawn up and approved by Government, are published hereunder.
